

Press Club Extends Membership To Alumni

Greyhound To Sponsor Feature Writing Contest

Annual Retreat Begins Monday

The Rev. John P. Gallagher, S. J., has been chosen retreat master for the annual student retreat, November 26, 27 and 28. Fr. Gallagher is the director of the Workingmen's Retreat Movement and is stationed at Trinity Church, Washington, D. C.

Mass In Morning

The services of the retreat will commence every morning with Mass. Fr. Gallagher will give his instruction in a daily series of three conferences. The Stations of the Cross and the Rosary will be recited each day of the retreat, and the day's activities will terminate with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

One of the Fathers will be in constant attendance in the Chapel during these three days so that a student who wishes to have his confession heard will be able to do so at any time.

Retreat Most Important

"These days are considered to be the most important of all days on the college calendar," stated the Student Counselor, the Rev. Thomas J. Higgins, S. J. "An outsider might think it strange that at a time when studies are so important, schedules so crowded, and time so valuable, we drop these things and turn our attention to other things. But our retreat summarizes the very reason why a Catholic College exists, and why men dedicate their lives to teaching in a Catholic College. God is First, and there is no second."

In addition to the daily exercise in the Chapel, a series of lectures on the topic "The Philosophy of Life" will be given by the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., President of Loyola College, for all non-Catholic students. The talks will be given in Room 101 of the Library Building.

Dramatic Society Will Present Program Of Three Radio Plays

by Robert W. Reichel

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, this is station L-O-Y-O-L-A located in the gymnasium of Loyola College. On our program this evening, the Masque and Rapier Dramatic Society will present three thirty minute plays: 'Two Against The Sea', 'Quick Money' and 'Atomic Energy'."

Such will be the introduction to the series of radio presentations which the thespians will present on Friday evening, December 7 in the Gym.

Two Comedies Scheduled

"Quick Money" is a fast moving sketch depicting the evils of money borrowing and features such characters as Figaro, a loan shark; Lewis, his assistant; Molet, a client; and Clifford, Molet's friend. The cast consists of Joseph B. Bronushas, Thomas L. Lalley, Arnold L. Hayes and Paul H. Collins.

A second comical skit will be "Atomic Energy". A large cast

O'Keefe Pro Tem Sociology Professor

In the absence of the Rev. Joseph J. Ayd, S. J., Professor of Social Science at Loyola College, Mr. Harold J. O'Keefe will assume the duties of Professor of Sociology. Mr. O'Keefe is Supervisor of the Social Science Service Department at Spring Grove State Hospital in Catonsville.

Mr. Rudolph A. Doering, S. J., has taken over Fr. Ayd's Economic lectures.

Fr. Ayd was taken ill on October 19 and has been confined to bed at St. Joseph's Hospital. THE GREYHOUND extends best wishes for his speedy recovery.

Evening School Bills Speakers

Lectures for the Evening School of Adult Education will be delivered by the Rev. Joseph T. Clark, S. J., on November 25, and by the Rev. Robert C. Hartnett, S. J., on Sunday, December 2. Both lectures are scheduled for 4 p. m. An open forum discussion will follow each talk.

Fr. Clark's subject will be "Towards an Acceptable Philosophy of Science". He has been lecturing in cosmology at Woodstock College and studying at Harvard University in alternate semesters for the past several years. His particular field of study is the history of science and philosophical questions related to science. Articles and book reviews written by him have appeared in Thought and America.

Professor At Fordham

Fr. Hartnett is conducting courses at the Graduate School of Fordham University. He contributed his lecture "Alexis de Tocqueville's 'Democracy in America'" to the "de Tocqueville Symposium"

(Continued on page 5, col. 5)

"The best feature article concerning Loyola College will be awarded first prize in the Feature Story Contest presently sponsored by THE GREYHOUND," disclosed Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., Moderator of THE GREYHOUND.

"The many letters which Alumni have sent us telling of their memories of Loyola have prompted THE GREYHOUND to hold a contest whereby students and Alumni of Loyola College can express their views in a feature story."

Prizes Listed

First prize is a handsome edition of Webster's Fifth Collegiate Dictionary bound in blue-colored pigskin; second prize is a copy of Mencken's "American Language"; and third prize will be the three volumes of the Modern Library Edition of Shakespeare's plays. All volumes will be inscribed by the Officers of the College and by the members of THE GREYHOUND Staff.

Judges for the contest are: The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., President of Loyola College; Mr. Hamilton Owens, Editor of The Baltimore Sun; Mr. Vincent de Paul Fitzpatrick, Editor of The Catholic Review; Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., Moderator of THE GREYHOUND; and Robert E. Hiltz, Editor-in-Chief of THE GREYHOUND.

Students, Alumni Eligible

The contest is open to all students of Loyola College, both those of the day school and in the Evening School of Adult Education.

Lalley Captures Oratory Honors

Thomas L. Lalley, a Junior at Loyola, won collegiate honors in the Catholic Book Week oratorical contest last November 2. On the following Wednesday, he delivered his prize-winning speech over Radio Station WFBR.

The contest took place in the Blue Room of the Alcazar and Miss Mary Margaret Toole presided. Both high school and college contestants took part.

Won 25 Silver Dollars

Tom received twenty-five silver dollars for his speech on the collegiate topic: Catholic Publishers: Promoters of World Peace. Jane Maynes, of Notre Dame, was second.

In the high school division, the winner was Patricia Taylor of Seton High School. She reviewed "The Song of Bernadette" as her contribution to the high school subject: "My Favorite Catholic Novel," and delivered the book review once more the following Monday over Station WBAL. Catherine Taylor, of the Institute of Notre Dame, placed second.

Three Judges Present

Dr. Adolph Wasilifsky, professor of Public Speaking at St. Joseph's College, Emmitsburg; the Rev. William Kailer Dunn; and Miss Marie Virginia Heaphy were judges for the contest.

The prizes of cash awards and books were donated by Mrs. Charles B. Kosco and Mrs. John Remington.

Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., aided Tom in the preparation and delivery of his talk.

Street Dies From Mishap

2nd Lt. Raymond P. Street

Second Lieutenant Raymond P. Street died in Germany on September 25 as a result of injuries in an accident near Mannheim. His wife, Mrs. Donna T. Street, of 3221 Wiltoughby Avenue, Parkville, received army notification of his death.

Fought In France, Germany

Inducted in January 1943, Lieutenant Street was sent to Camp Hood, Texas, for his basic training. From there he was sent to Officers' Candidate School. After he was commissioned a second lieutenant he went overseas with the 35th Division in charge of an infantry platoon. His platoon was attached to the 9th army and fought up through Southern France and Germany.

Before his death he wrote to his wife telling of the great number of G. I.'s who were being killed in accidents on the poorly-conditioned roads of Germany, and that if they were not soon repaired more would be killed. A short time afterward he succumbed from such an accident.

Entered Loyola In 1939

Lieutenant Street attended Public School No. 84 and Southern High School before entering Loyola College in 1939. While at the College he was active in dramatics, the Chemists' Club, and intramural baseball and football.

He was married in January 1942, and has a son 16 months old.

General Meeting Called To Elect Executive Board

More than three hundred journalists who have worked on THE GREYHOUND since 1927 have been invited to a meeting of The Greyhound Press Club which is expanding to include Alumni members. The meeting will take place on Monday, November 26, at 8:15 in the Recreation Room of the Gym.

The agenda calls for the appointing of an executive committee to draft a constitution for the club and to prepare a list of nominees for officers. Following the meeting, refreshments will be served.

Executive Committee Meeting

Prior to the general meeting, an executive committee will convene with the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., President of the College, and with Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., Moderator of THE GREYHOUND, to discuss the agenda of the general meeting.

The Greyhound Press Club was formed in September, 1943. It was never broadened to include Alumni since most of the possible Alumni members were entered in various branches of the Services.

Alumni Affiliation

The expanded organization is to have a permanent affiliation with the Alumni Association. Its purposes are:

1. To promote an understanding of the operations of the complete college through the media of the men who evidenced greatest interest in the furtherance of this understanding while members of the student body;
2. To promote the Catholic Collegiate Press;
3. To provide a substantial force for assisting The Greyhound staff in perfecting the paper; and
4. To offer social opportunities for men of similar interests in journalism.

Second Meeting December 10

A second general meeting on December 10 will feature action on the constitution and election of officers.

Pope Sends Peter's Pence Thanks

(The Very Rev. Zacheus J. Maher, Assistant to the General of the Society of Jesus for the American Assistancy, received the following letter from the Vicar General of the Society, who in turn had received it from His Holiness, Pope Pius XII. It is in thanks for the Peter's Pence Collection of 1945. The Loyola Student Body may consider it as addressed from the Vatican to each one personally.)

From the Vatican, August 31, 1945

To the Very Reverend Father
Norbert de Boynes
Vicar General of the Society of Jesus.
Very Reverend Father:

His Holiness entrusts to you, Very Reverend Father, the expression of his personal gratitude for the offering that the charity of the Schools under the care of the Society has caused to be presented to the Common Father with such lofty intentions.

Cheered in particular by this fraternal solidarity and the Christian spirit that animates it, the Holy Father begs of Our Lord that it be fittingly rewarded. And while he directs all his devotions to this effect in behalf of the donors, he gladly sends to each and every contributor, as likewise to Your Reverence, the consolation of the Apostolic Benediction.

With sentiments of religious esteem, etc. . .

C. Grano. f.f.

Fr. Robb Named Retreat Master Of Alumni Assn.

The Loyola College Alumni Association will once more hold its annual retreat at Manresa-on-the-Severn on the week-end of November 30 to December 2. The Retreat Master will be the Rev. Samuel J. Robb, S. J.

Fr. Robb was formerly rector of Georgetown Preparatory School and is now stationed at Manresa.

Kernan Is Chairman

John J. Kernan, '45, is chairman in charge of the retreat. Thomas J. Grogan, '29, is assistant chairman in charge of transportation. Inquiries about the retreat may also be made to Dr. Edward A. Doehler, '30, or the Rev. Robert S. Lloyd, S. J., director of Manresa.

Members unable to furnish their own transportation should contact Thomas Grogan well in advance of the event.

Reservations must be made before November 27, by contacting John Kernan, at 3600 Callaway Ave., or by calling Liberty 2880.

Large Attendance Expected

During the past few years, attendance has been small, and constituted only two percent of the members of the association. This year, because of the relaxation of war-time restrictions and the many returning Loyola veterans, a much more representative delegation is expected to make the retreat.

A general reorganization of the activities of the Alumni Association has been planned for some time. This is the first major Alumni activity of the current year and is expected to bring together many Alumni formerly in the service.

Fr. Bunn Attends Conference

The annual meeting of the Middle Atlantic States Association, to be held on Friday and Saturday, November 23 and 24, will count as one of its delegates the Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., president of Loyola College. The meeting will be held in New York City at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

The Middle Atlantic States Association is the accrediting association for educational institutions along the Atlantic seaboard from the New England States down to Virginia.

Greyhound Traces Feats Of Its Former Editors

by Thomas L. Lalley

(This is the first in a series of two articles by Mr. Lalley on former editors-in-chief of THE GREYHOUND.)

One priest; three lawyers; two professional newspaper writers; one doctor; one research chemist; and one real estate broker: these are the occupations of the first nine editors-in-chief of THE GREYHOUND. Two of these are now doing secret work for the United States Army.

First Editor Now Jesuit

The first editor was the now Rev. Edward W. Tribbe, S. J., '28. He taught at Loyola High School for a short time after his graduation here and then entered the Jesuit novitiate at Wernersville, a member of one of the first classes to study there. Later, he was sent to St. Louis University for special studies. Fr. Tribbe has returned to Wernersville where he is now teaching Classical Literature.

Moran Star SUN Reporter

Joseph A. Moran, ex. '29, was the next editor. After leaving school, he became a reporter for the old Baltimore News and six months later for the Sunpapers where he is today. The Sun at first assigned him to the Police Headquarters beat but soon began to utilize him for general assignments. In 1936, when the present Pope Pius XII, then Cardinal Secretary of State, visited Baltimore for a few hours while on an airplane tour of the United States, Moran was the only Baltimore reporter to meet him and cover his activities. Two years ago, his signed articles on a black market liquor ring aided the police in smashing it. At present he is on the Sun copy desk.

Standard Oil Chemist

Bernard L. Evering, '30, succeeded Moran as editor-in-chief. An outstanding chemistry student here, he later received his doctorate in organic chemistry under Professor Bernard L. Rice of Johns Hopkins University. During one summer of his course, he accompanied Prof. Rice on a trip to Heidelberg University, Germany, and wrote his dissertation upon the material he gathered there. At present, he is employed in the Whiting (Ind.) laboratories of the Standard Oil Company.

Philip B. Smith, '31, fourth editor, was admitted to the Bar after study at the University of Maryland Law School. He practiced law privately and was employed in the Assistant City Solicitor's Office until enlisting in the United States Navy. He is now doing communication work at Radio Manila after

(Continued on page 6, col. 1)

Math Club Will Hear Talk On Archimedes

"Archimedes—His Life and Principles" will be the topic of an address by William F. Simons, of the Freshman Class, at the third meeting of the Math Club, calendared for Friday, November 30, at 12:50 p. m. in Room 103. President Charles J. Schmidt will preside at the meeting.

William W. Cahill delivered a talk on "Euclid's Thirteen Books" at the second meeting of the club on Friday, November 2.

Mr. Joseph A. May, Math Club Moderator, has scheduled other student addresses for successive monthly meetings.

Rules For Feature Contest

Rules for the Feature contest announced on page 1 are:

1. The contest is open to all Alumni and undergraduates of Loyola College including students enrolled in the School of Adult Education.
2. Entries must be written as feature articles which are in some way connected with Loyola College. Each feature must be not more than 1,000 words in length.
3. Any number of entries may be submitted by an individual, but each will be considered as a separate entry.
4. Three prizes will be awarded. (See first page for the list of prizes)
5. The deadline of the contest is January 30, 1946, at which time all entries must be in the hands of the Contest Editor in suitable condition for judging. Entries submitted by mail should be addressed to: Contest Editor, THE GREYHOUND, Loyola College, Baltimore - 10, Maryland.
6. All entries must be typewritten, double-spaced on one side of 8½ by 11 white typewriting paper. There must be two copies of each entry, one of which may be a carbon copy.
7. THE GREYHOUND retains rights of publication for all entries, and all entries become the property of THE GREYHOUND.
8. Judges' decisions will be based on originality of theme and treatment, and general journalistic ability of the writer.
9. Additional information may be obtained from Mr. William-M. J. Driscoll, S. J., or from Mr. Robert E. Hiltz.

ROOFING

Sheet Metal — Home Insulation

Edw. G. Fick & Co.

2008-10 Harford Ave. UN. 6620

O'Neill's Cafe

2104 Greenmount Ave.

BEER - WINES - LIQUORS

WE BOW OUR HEADS, but not too low, to our rugby vets like our linguist, Clark (Twat Thay Phellous) Corcoran and Reds (Its just a scratch) Baker who thought they played dirty . . . Grrrr! . . . And for poor and sickly Phil (So that's justice) Lohrey who was pinned down in record time on the gym floor . . . Got some nice wrestlers in the Soph class . . . To Mike (Another Highlandowski collaborator) Testa who got let down due to atmospheric conditions . . . Bar with me please.

THE PAYOFF WILL COME WHEN:—Tom (John Silver) Lalley counts his shekels . . . note . . . Tom, go over and pick it up from Mr. Driscoll . . . (Bro. Fitz made a clear profit, too) . . . To Bob (Coughdrops) Hiltz who has been Linking notes . . . not love notes . . . with his personally appointed ed. on the Mount . . . Joe (They don't have anything else to do on Sunday) Parlett doesn't give up his personal guiding job . . . Nancy can find her way around the campus by now . . . remember the Chateau, Joe . . . Bill (Gayuze into my eyes) Connolly cleans his eyes every morning now since Joan thought she saw more than enough in them . . . She lipreads too, Bill.

ON THE LIST:—We still find Fred (Socially inactive) Hubbell following out to the letter his prescribed meals . . . We leave Fred crunching and jump to . . . Ed (Let's go Hank, Joe) Rehak babying the water-wagon for over two months . . . too bad . . . We find John (I was scared) Cuculis engaging in pugnacious tactics not so long ago . . . Now, now, be good.

WE'D LIKE TO KNOW:—Why Joe (Corky) Davis always wants to throw a party in a certain house and tell them "Little Joe" sent you??? . . . What Ben (The Build) Apicella and Charlie (I made $25) Schmidt did after the social over there in the corner . . . Veray interesting . . . How Manley (Just Watch me) Gately lost his shirt . . . And how Jack (Li'l Atom) Enoch stayed in the game so long . . . Maybe, says Fenwick (Don't blow too hard) Edelen, it's because our individual grudges for one man are so great (who's next?) . . . What Fred (Bull-Throzzler) Simmons and Morgan (Did you hear the one about? etc.) Mattingly do when they see a few of the N. D. girls . . . Watch out, girls, they're a duo of experts . . .

SHAME ON BIG BOYS LIKE:—Gus (Do you know what the Baby did today?) Crenson and William (Yes, W. stands for Walsh) Cahill . . . Tony (Swaks) Unitas who had better buy a sociology book . . . his problems won't be solved now . . . Me too . . . Andy (The Laugh) Alecce who is due for another logical haircut . . . Sid (Just look at the dandruff) Roche is sucking the proverbial gas-jet until the Crime Master returns.

CAFETERIA GOSSIP:—From the echoing walls, we seem to hear that John (All the N. D. girls know my life history) Mudd didn't quite enjoy himself at the dance . . . Amazin' feat that Jimmy (I got my money's worth) Feild did during the dance . . . Really like that girl . . . Bob (The Smile) Hays ought to write that letter instead of letting things ride for the Yonce.

Towson Billiard Academy

501 York Rd.—Towson

Where Old Friends Meet and New Ones Get Acquainted

Wagner & Wagner

PHARMACISTS

We Deliver

502 W. Cold Spring Lane
UN. 4434

Komber's Market

931 E. 22nd Street

Phone BE. 9094

Torsch & Franz

Badge Co.

3 N. Liberty St.

Makers of Banners, Badges, Pennants
Athletic Awards

A. H. FETTING COMPANY

314 N. Charles St.

MANUFACTURING & RETAIL JEWELERS

Producers of Loyola College Rings

O'TOOLE GENERAL TIRE CO.

10 E. Mt. Royal Ave.

Alumni Addresses Needed, Please

THE GREYHOUND does not have the address of the Alumni listed below. In order to keep its files up to date, and that every Alumni may receive his copy of the paper, we are requesting anyone who knows of the whereabouts of these Alumni either to call the Registrar of the College or send the unknown address to THE GREYHOUND, Loyola College, by mail. May we also urge you to notify either the College or Postal Authorities of a change in your address? This will bring you your copy of THE GREYHOUND without delay. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Abel, Joseph V., ex. '02
Agnelli, Freeman B., ex. '29
Agnew, George A., ex. '95
Ahern, John C., ex. '89
Aiken, Albert C., ex. '75
Alminde, Thomas J., ex. '31
Appel, Andrew F., ex. '39
Arnold, Joseph F., ex. '27
Babashanian, John G., ex. '39
Baer, Herbert L., ex. '43
Baltzell, Henry E., ex. '71
Balukas, Joseph J., ex. '30
Barrett, Daniel G., ex. '23
Barrett, William R.
Bell, Drummund C., ex. '36
Bellew, Arthur P., ex. '33
Belmont, Anthony M., ex. '37
Beltz, Robert H., ex. '35
Belz, Lt. Joseph A., '29
Bennish, John J., ex. '29
Bentley, Byrnes F., ex. '26
Bize, Louis A., ex. '95
Blair, E. K., ex. '27
Blair, John T., ex. '27
Blake, John W., ex. '33

Bolling, George M., ex. '91
Boone, Charles L., ex. '95
Boone, Edward D., ex. '00
Boone, William S., ex. '89
Bove, Louis J., ex. '42
Boyd, John A., ex. '96
Braden, William F., ex. '09
Bradley, Horace E., ex. '10
Bremer, Harry C., ex. '38
Brennen, Maurice J., ex. '25
Broadbeck, George A., ex. '31
Broderick, F. J., Jr., ex. '42
Broening, Joseph J., Sr., ex. '06
Brooke, William D., ex. '95
Brown, Charles B.
Brown, George M., ex. '91
Brown, Joseph L., ex. '02
Brown, William E.
Buckner, Julian C., ex. '80
Buettner, Frederick B., ex. '26
Burch, James C., ex. '13
Burke, Francis J., ex. '37
Burns, W. Bleden, ex. '37
Butler, Martin E., ex. '31

The Past In Picture

Stan Kenton, popular band leader and pianist extraordinaire, entertained at the Junior Prom back in May, 1943. Vocal attraction was Dolly Mitchell (Right)

Above, the Library at Loyola College as it appeared after it was dedicated by Archbishop Curley in June, 1929. The Library now contains 35,000 volumes and features everything from philosophical treatises to popular novels.

These rural revelers are sitting one out at the Barn Dance sponsored by the Senior class in November, 1940.

A Greyhound

"These are for Sammy." The play, "Dr. Clitterhouse".

The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., receives a copy of the Loyola Charter from the Very Rev. Lawrence C. Gorman, S. J., on the occasion of the former's installation as President of the College

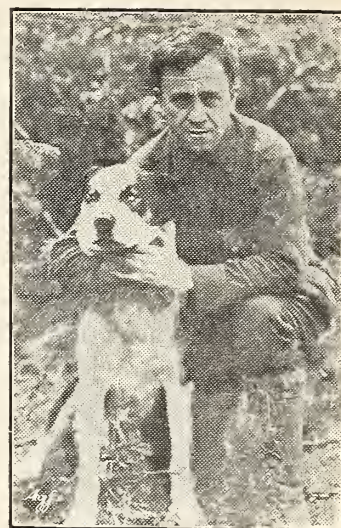

Rotogravure

William Rittenhouse's first prize winner in a photography contest sponsored by the Loyola Photography Club in January, 1941.

Mr. Lucien E. D. Gandreau guides Dr. Edward A. Doehler and students through Washington architectural scenes in May, 1940.

Father Bernard R. Hubbard, "the Glacier Priest", came to Loyola in March, 1939, as speaker during one of the lecture series.

Members of the Physical Education class in November, 1942 participate in a "Reitzkreig".

William T. Melzer, ex. '43, one of the first Loyola students to fight Japs.

The Rev. Arthur A. North, S. J., Loyola Professor, now an Army Chaplain.

The Rev. Richard B. Schmidt, S. J., taught chemistry at Loyola for sixteen years. He succumbed recently.

THE GREYHOUND

Published by The Greyhound, Loyola College, Evergreen, Cold Spring Lane and Charles St., Baltimore—10, Maryland, triweekly except holidays and periods of examinations.

Volume XIX, Issue No. 3

November 23, 1945

Editor-in-Chief, Robert E. Hiltz

Business Manager
E. Paul Coffay, Jr.

Feature Editor
George Bardelman

Headline Editor
Mannes Greenberg

Exchange Editor
Francis Meagher

John Arthur
Richard Bird
Joseph Bronushas
Irving Brown
Raymond Chlan

Benjamin Apicella
James Baker

Robert Bourbon

Cartwright Griesacker

Office Manager
Terrence Fay

News Editor
Edward Barrett

Make-up Editor
Robert Reichel

Photo Editor
Kenneth Harman

Advertising Manager
William Cahill

News Staff
Thomas Comber
Joseph Davis
J. Frank Griffin
Theodore Heying
William Johnson, Jr.

Sports Staff
Raymond Bevans

Circulation Staff
Paul Collins

Advertising Staff

Sports Editor
Charles Schmidt

Copy Editor
Thomas Lalley

Circulation Director
Fred Hubbell

Re-write Editor
Gus Crenson

James Laster
Philip Lohrey
Thomas Padden
Richard Rebbert
John Riley

Neal Sybert
Edward Vidali

Sid Roche

George Lochner

Reference Editor
Robert Hays

President of the Greyhound Press Club, Robert E. Chartrand

Subscription — One Dollar a Year

Tel. Chesapeake 1020

Entered as second-class matter August 13, 1943 at the postoffice at Baltimore, Maryland, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

ACP Rating—All-American

Member

Associated Collegiate Press

Member

National Catholic Press Assn.

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY

National Advertising Service, Inc.

College Publishers Representative

420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.

CHICAGO • BOSTON • LOS ANGELES • SAN FRANCISCO

Congratulations, Loyolalumni

Graduation exercises may be misleading because many people consider them as a sort of farewell party. At graduation, students do bid farewell to their college, but this farewell is not an absolute thing. Graduation exercises are a reception party, too, for it is upon graduation that a Loyola man says good-bye as a student and says hello as an Alumnus.

The point is simply this—when a student is graduated, he does not break ties with the college, but merely changes his relationship to the school. He becomes closer than ever to his college. And so, no matter where he goes, he carries with him the designation: Loyola Alumnus.

The name, however, does not mean much in itself. A Loyola Alumnus must act and be a Loyolalumni.

During the past few weeks, signs which attest to the fact that Loyola's Alumni are acting more and more like Alumni, have become most striking. They are doing such a fine job that the student body is not only amazed, but the students feel they could well take sound instruction from their big brothers.

It goes without saying that there exists excellent organization in the Alumni Association itself. The quality of the officers and executive committee, the increasing number of service Alumni who are attending the meetings and the increasing activities of the Association all manifest the spirit of the entire unit.

And this is just the beginning!

No organization is as pleased to see stimulated action on the part of the Alumni as THE GREYHOUND. One hundred percent support do we of THE GREYHOUND pledge to our Loyolalumni.

On the other hand, we would like to see one hundred percent cooperation from the Alumni. No, we don't mean from the Alumni already active in the Association, but full support from the many Loyolalumni who attended graduation exercises—but only as a farewell party. For them, thus far, there has been no reception party. But for them, too, the welcome mat is always prominently displayed at every meeting of the Alumni Association. Loyola wants all her sons to remain close—always.

You Alumni, then, who do not participate in Alumni activity, you reading this editorial, won't you accept our invitation to join the Association? You who belong in name only—won't you take an active part? You have a duty to your Alma Mater. You do your part and she will reward you many fold. Your fellow Alumni are the greatest group of men you know. Get to know them, then. In the assortment of Alumni projects and groups there is a spot just for you. No one else can fill your chair but you yourself.

So, congratulations to you Alumni who are active in the Association. THE GREYHOUND is proud of you. And you who are not active members, how about becoming Loyolalumni, too?

Those Signs On The Bulletin Board

The chances are that every time a student looks at one of the bulletin boards at school he sees a sign on it. The chances are even better that that sign will be a notice of some activity meeting to be held in the near future. And the chances are better yet that that club needs his support as a member.

About four years ago, however, those signs might not have carried the urgency they now do, for then there was an ample student body and each club had a representative membership. At that time there were approximately twenty activities in full swing. These twenty had a student enrollment of five hundred from which to draw.

Last year there were nine activities functioning, and only eighty-five students enrolled. Today, when a student glances at the bulletin boards, he is apt to see one of thirteen signs advertising the thirteen activities now operating. On the other end of the see-saw are one hundred and thirty students enrolled. Even more, the see-saw is balancing. Those thirteen activities are really functioning — they are accomplishing something, many of them with more ambitious programs than the same activities had before the war.

That, as it stands, is an achievement that cannot be lauded too highly. The one difficulty is that these activities are operating with skeleton forces. A great percentage of the student body does not belong to more than one or two clubs and societies. This should not be the case. Giving all credit where it is richly deserved, the fact cannot be overemphasized that more students should get into more activities. Don't be the kind of student who leaves school at the last bell. Stay around awhile and get into the extra-curricular activities—get to know Loyola and Loyola men.

Just ask any fellow who is active in extra-curriculars. He will tell you that those activities are the major part of his college. He will insist that extra-curricular activities are not burdensome, but are recreational. He will tell you that you can get benefits from the extra-curriculars which you don't get in the classroom.

The point is simply this: it doesn't do any good to have good marks if you can't put them into practice in extra-curricular activities. And the fondest memories of a college student are those of his work and fun as a member of college societies and clubs.

You can help them; they can help you. Give it a try a few times. Read those signs on the bulletin boards and then go to the meetings.

The Reader's Right

September 23, 1945.

Dear Father Bunn:

It's been quite some time that I have been wanting to say "hello". Finally I found the time.

Two weeks ago I completed my Basic Training. Now I'm in the Medical Training Battalion. We have eight classes a day and they are very interesting. Anatomy, Physiology, Pharmacy, Emergency Care and Treatment are a few of our subjects.

When Japan surrendered we were given a two day holiday. So, Seattle being fifty miles away, I took a trip up there. I wasn't in Seattle thirty minutes before I bumped into a Loyola Alumnus, Joe Kelly, class of '38, who played basketball for the College. He's a first Lieutenant in the Army. It's getting so that you're apt to bump into a Loyola man no matter where you go.

In closing, Father, here's hoping that Loyola has a most successful year and that before long the Alumni can return and enjoy the friendships of a grand institution.

Kindly remember me in your prayers, Father.

An Alumnus and friend,

Private James Lazzati, USA.

How About Us, Hoyas?

Formation of a Jesuit League! That is the idea proposed by Paul Daly, editor-in-chief of The Hoya, Georgetown University's publication.

Mr. Daly encourages such a league of Jesuit schools in football, basketball and baseball. The league, he says, should be composed of Fordham University, Boston College, Holy Cross College and Georgetown. He argues that these schools consistently turn out the best teams of Jesuit institutions in these sports.

But, Mr. Daly seems to have forgotten LOYOLA COLLEGE!

True, Loyola does not have a football team, but in baseball and basketball the Hounds are usually one of the better teams in the East. Georgetown will see this when they invade Evergreen on December 1.

Loyola is definitely in favor of such a league, and it sees no reason why it should be excluded in basketball and baseball. In these sports, we can hold our own against any of the Jesuit colleges in the East.

We would go even further, though, Mr. Daly, and augment your proposal. We at Loyola say, let's include every Jesuit College in the east. To the Colleges you mentioned, let's add St. Peter's College, Canisius College, St. Joseph's College and Scranton University. There's a nine team league of Jesuit schools that would be unbeatable. Publicity would then really skyrocket, as you so aptly stated. Loyola is more than willing to do all it can to promote such a league, for we believe that it will really "go"!

So, how about it, Georgetown? You can count on Loyola.

Books On Review

(All books mentioned in this column may be borrowed from the library of Loyola College for a period of fourteen days. They are renewable if necessary.)

An exhibit of modern cartooning will be placed on public display this Monday, November 26, in the library. The sketches of such well-known artists as Virgil Partch, Gardner Rea, George Price and William Steig will be featured. Because of the ease with which the books may be read, they will not be allowed to circulate but will remain in the library during the exhibit.

Cass Timberlane by Sinclair Lewis

In 1920, Sinclair Lewis, an obscure American writer, suddenly burst into national recognition with his smashing satire on American life: Main Street. In the next few years, he published similar castigators: Babbitt, Arrowsmith, Elmer Gantry and Dodsworth.

Cass, a middle-aged banker, marries a girl of twenty in a desperate attempt to escape from the dreary monotony of a mid-Western town. The author comments on this and other marriages around town with a pessimistic disillusionment, which indicates that he expects much more morality from his characters than he actually puts into them. In all his many novels, Mr. Lewis has never progressed any further than his characterizations and plots of the twenties.

This Man Truman by Frank McNaughton and Walter Hehmeyer.

Harry Truman is certainly no subject for a serious and lengthy biography. Except for the Truman Investigating Committee and his activities as Vice-President, he had done nothing of national importance until the death of Roosevelt.

Messrs. McNaughton and Hehmeyer were both associated with Truman during his senatorial days. They have written an interesting account in an easy-reading, journalistic style.

Other books recently added are: American Language, Supplement One by H. L. Mencken, another semantic outburst from Hollins Street; American Issues (2 vols.) edited by Willard Thorp, Merle Curti and Carlos Baker, a complete literary and social history of the United States; and Christianity and Classical Culture by Charles N. Cochrane, a survey of Roman culture from Augustus to Theodosius.

The Last Word

Abraham Lincoln once said "You can't please all of the people all of the time", or something to that effect. So it is with that thought in mind that this column is desecrated, mangled and beaten into print.

House Fly Farce

Science is now weighing the prospects of a theory for the abolition of that aggravating nuisance, the common house fly. First, a board of the best English professors available must be organized. (Fr. McKay is being considered) The next thing is to catch the flies that always get away (since they are the smartest) and teach them to understand English. From there on in, it's simple. As soon as they can understand our terms, all we have to do is sign a truce with them, whereby, if said pests will stop annoying the human race, said human race will burn up all the fly swatters.

Hep! One! Two! Three!

Noticed the huge veteran Freshmen who amble around the campus? We saw a Senior washing a pair of socks for a discharged sergeant in Mrs. Tippet's tomato soup (molecular weight .00019). Take it easy, this ain't the army, Mr. Jones! Well, anyway we still have Roche on our side to protect us. But what'll we do in 1956 when Sid graduates?

Overheard In The Chemistry Class

Mister: McGuinness, when you leave this college, I want you to be a leader.

McG: Liter of what—hydrochloric acid?

* * * * *

No Box Tops

This column will award a brand new, pre-fabricated, pre-war, and pre-made yo-yo string to the person who sends in the neatest correct answer to this question: "How high is a mouse if it spins?". All entries must be handed in before the contest closes and a tie will be regarded as a draw. For further information of the contest, see a doctor.

Question: What's the difference between a duck?

Answer: Both of its legs are the same.

Fr. Ayd Will Tell You

Statistics say that 500 people fall out of windows and are killed every year. According to this, the safest place to live is in a jail.

Last Minute

Don't forget to send in your selections for the all-intramural football team. Eddie Kibitzonitzwizki (Fighting Irish) has forwarded the following lineup:

Harold Posner: backfield backer-up.

Buck Simon: quarterback sneak.

Ben Apicella: bull-oops-ball carrier.

Bob Hiltz: debater with referees.

Bob Kelly: ringer.

Wilson: (He has charge of the ball).

Good-Bi

Well that's all brother. But may we leave you with this parting thought: it's a good thing that eggs are such a popular food or just imagine how many chickens there would be.

Brink's Long Association With Loyola Men Expires

The Last Of The "Brink's B'hoys"

(Left to right) Raymond Chlan, Sid Roche, Thomas Gaudreau, James McCloskey, Charles Schmidt and Robert Hiltz.

by Gus A. Crenson

Lay that pistol down, boys!

The long, profitable and pleasant association of Loyola boys with Brink's Incorporated has come to an end. Upon the termination of its contractual agreement with the Glenn L. Martin Company, Brink's found that it could no longer use Loyola students' services as guards and paymasters.

November 2 Last Day

Friday, November 2, marked the final day of work at Brink's.

First contact with Brink's, an armored truck concern that transports money and valuables, was established by Loyola students back in April, 1942. Since that time, ninety-seven "Brink's b'hoys" have found financial succor as paymasters and guards. Not a few of the students were able to pay their tuition at Loyola.

The ending of hostilities reduced the weekly number of work days to one, although Loyola students originally worked two afternoons and one night a week for Brink's.

Guns, Badges, Bullets

Every Thursday and Friday afternoon two or three Brink's trucks would stop at Loyola College and pick up the students. Guns (.38 calibre), badges and bullets would be distributed and (after the required number of students were ferreted out of their labs, the cafeteria and THE GREYHOUND office) the trucks would depart.

Thirty minutes later the bouncing, bumping "cans" would arrive at the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft plant at Middle River. There, awaiting the student paymasters and guards, would be trays of envelopes which contained the wages of the nearly thirty thousand Martin employees.

"Paid Off" In Plant

Having counted their envelopes, the paymasters would disperse to different points in the plant buildings to their pay stations. Amid the stucco of rivet guns, lines of employees would form to receive their wages.

After their return envelopes and stubs were counted, the paymasters then returned to "Central Pay", and within another forty minutes were "bounced" back to the Brink's plant on St. Paul Street. Either a Brink's truck, a car, or the much reviled "Red Wagon" was used to transport the students back to the plant.

On Thursday afternoons the students helped pay off Plant 2, and on Friday afternoons Plant 1 received their wages. Up to April the boys worked on Friday nights from 11:30 til 3 a. m. paying off the night shift at Plant 1.

Gessler Works Longest

The student who worked longest for Brink's was Joseph Gessler, who, like others, continued as a paymaster after his graduation. Robert Hiltz holds seniority among the current students and Thomas Gaudreau was the last student hired by Brink's.

IRC's Discuss Indian Status At Notre Dame

"India: Shall she be granted dominion status or complete independence?" was the topic under discussion at the second meeting of the Maryland Regional International Relations Clubs Conference. The assembly was held in the Fourier Library building of Notre Dame of Maryland College last Sunday, November 18, at 4:00 p. m.

NFCCS Delegates Join IRC

Earlier in the afternoon, there had been a brief meeting of the regional province of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. This was conducted under the jurisdiction of the NFCCS National IRC Commission located at Trinity College, Washington, D. C.

The new regional moderator, the Rev. Aloysius Ziegler, of Catholic University, was announced. Thomas Lalley, Loyola representative, proposed that Loyola assume a regional Christian Doctrine commission. The proposal was accepted.

New Delegates Present

Miss Virginia Elly of Notre Dame delivered a paper on India. This was followed by a spirited discussion under the direction of Miss Jane Maynes. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

At the NFCCS conclave, Notre Dame, Loyola, Mt. St. Agnes, Trinity, Dumbarton, Immaculata and St. Joseph's were represented. Additional delegates from these colleges as well as from Johns Hopkins, Goucher, Towson State Teachers and Western Maryland were present at the IRC parley.

Lectures . . .

(Continued from page 1, col. 2)

just published by the Fordham University Press.

Fr. Hartnett's doctorate thesis was written on Alexander Hamilton. Born in Chicago, Fr. Hartnett has taught at the University of Detroit, and will return there in January. Articles by him have also appeared in Thought and America.

Students, Faculty Invited

Students and Faculty from Johns Hopkins, Goucher, Mt. St. Agnes, Maryland, Notre Dame, and Towson State Teachers College have been invited. Students in the day school at Loyola (as well as night school students) are entitled to one gratis ticket to each lecture. The fee for all three lectures is two dollars; the price for each individual lecture is one dollar.

As part of the adult education program, Friday evening seminars given by the Night School Faculty will begin in January. The subjects considered will be current topics in the labor field, education and international relations. Day and Evening School students will be admitted free.

HOLLY'S

for

Cocktails

3333 Greenmount Ave.

N. H. MacLeod

ESSO DEALER

Park Heights & Shirley Aves.
Baltimore, Md.

American Export Lines, Inc.

Keyser Bldg.

MU. 4020

GEO. J. STORCK

LUMBER — MILLWORK — WALLBOARDS — HARDWARE
PAINTS — CUSTOM MILLWORK

2406-18 Greenmount Ave.

UN. 3500

OPPEL'S

LIQUORS — WINES — BEER
Imported and Domestic

TUxedo 3660

5419 York Road

EASY TO APPLY

Plasti-Kote

THE NEW "CELLOPHANE-LIKE" PLASTIC FINISH

GIVES OLD FLOORS MODERN BEAUTY!

Linoleum or wood . . .
"Plasti-Kote" does the job
... and good! Protects floors, woodwork and furniture! No more cleaning or
waxing problems
... just wipe with a damp cloth! Alcohol-proof ... and skid-proof, too!

Only $2.95 per quart

ASK FOR IT AT YOUR

Neighborhood Grocer, Hardware, House Furnishings or Department Store

Students Vote To Keep Secret 'Atomic Bomb'

by George Bardelman

The United States must keep the secret of the atomic bomb! This was the verdict of seventy percent of the students in a recent poll sponsored by THE GREYHOUND. Seven important and timely questions were asked in this ballot on current topics. Each question was presented in an affirmative and negative manner, and several were accompanied by reasons for each answer.

College Calendar

- Nov. 23—Thanksgiving Holidays
25—Night School Lecture, the Rev. Joseph T. Clark, S. J.
26-27-28—Annual Students Retreat
28—Basketball game, La Salle, away
29—Classes resumed
30—Block L Smoker
Dec. 1—Basketball game, Georgetown University, home
2—Night School Lecture, the Rev. Robert C. Hartnett, S. J.
7—First Friday Devotions
—Basketball game, Gallaudet College, away
—Masque and Rapier Dramatic Presentation
11—Basketball game, Coast Guard, home
14—Basketball game, Randolph Macon, away
—Next GREYHOUND Publication Day
15—Basketball game, American University, away

Former Editors . . .

(Continued from page 2, col. 2)
short assignments on Hollandia and Leyte. He holds the rank of lieutenant.

Two More Study Law

Graduating in 1932, Francis R. Moran also studied law at Maryland and then began practice with the firm of Moran and Ewell. He enlisted in the Navy as a lieutenant (j.g.) and supervised radar contracts. Later he was shifted to the armed guard school at Shelton (Va.) but became ill shortly before shipment overseas. He was given a medical discharge and is now practicing law in the Union Trust Building.

J. Carroll Power, '33, became the third editor to study law at Maryland. At the beginning of the war, he was in private practice when he was inducted into the Army and assigned to the Intelligence Corps as technical sergeant. His work is confidential.

C. Rollins Hanlon, '34, seventh editor, pursued medical studies at Johns Hopkins and later practiced at the University of Cincinnati General Hospital. He is now a Navy lieutenant on duty with the Medical Corps in China.

Lewis Magazine Editor

Roger E. Lewis, Jr., '35, has been employed by Army ordnance since his graduation. Among other duties, he edits the Army Ordnance Magazine, a monthly publication emanating from Washington, D. C.

The ninth editor, Eugene F. Jendrek, '36, held positions with several companies after graduation until he accepted permanent employment at the Augusta Building and Loan Association. He was drafted into the Army as a member of the 29th Division. After a year at Fort Meade, he was separated from his unit and given secret duty by Army Intelligence with which he is occupied at the present time.

Sharp & Dohme Presents Movie To Science Club

Continuing its series of movies and lectures, the Chemistry Club of Loyola has arranged to have the Sharp and Dohme Chemical Company present a movie entitled "Lyovac, Human Blood Plasma", at its next meeting on Thursday, December 13 at 2:15 p.m.

Members of the Mendel Club have been invited to see this film since the subject matter is also included in Biology.

Earlier in the Fall, United States Steel Incorporated showed a technicolor movie on "Steel, Man's Servant" to the chemistry students.

More than sixty members attended the first meeting of the Chem Club, at which time Mr. W. H. Long, chemical instructor at the Standard Oil Company, delivered a fascinating lecture on the "Cat Cracker" which is located in Baltimore.

Interest on the part of the students prompted Mr. Long to go into greater detail about the operations of his plant. He presented a thorough exposition of the whole plant, only omitting mention of the catalyst that is used in the production of high-octane gasoline.

"That is a military secret," explained Mr. Long, "and has not as yet been revealed to the public."

First Quarter Honors Posted

The first quarterly assembly of the student body was held on Tuesday, November 6, in the Library. The Very Rev. Edward B. Bunn, S. J., President of the College, presented honor cards to those students who attained a mark of 95 or over in one or more of their subjects.

The Rev. Joseph A. d'Ingvilliers, S. J., Dean, announced that the following students had been placed on the Dean's List of Distinguished Students for having attained an average of 85 percent or more in all their subjects for the first quarter ending October 26:

Seniors: Robert E. Hiltz, Edward M. Rehak and Frederick R. Simons.

Juniors: Mannes F. Greenberg, Edwin F. Hawkins and Thomas L. Lalley.

Class averages for the first quarter were as follows: Seniors, 81.76; Juniors, 82.33; Sophomores, 76.48; Sophomore B class, 80.11; May Freshmen, 74.87; and September Freshmen, 76.25. The College's average was 78.83.

Metropolitan Sales & Service
DOMESTIC & COMMERCIAL
REFRIGERATION
Repairs of Electrical Appliances
1920 Frederick Ave.
24 Hour Service GI 0564

ASK YOUR GROCER

for

Maryland Chief

Tomatoes

Peas

Spinach

French Style

Stringless Beans

Packed by

J. LANGRALL & SONS, Inc., Balto., Md.

Running With The Hounds

by Charles Schmidt

If height means anything in the making of a good basketball team, then Loyola has the makings of a good team. Six members of the eleven man squad are six feet in height or better, and three others are only two inches below the two yard mark. George Bardelman and Ed Vidali at five feet, seven inches, are the smallest men on the squad.

Experience is another prevailing factor in evaluating this year's court squad. Sid Roche, George Bardelman, Bill Cahill and John Mudd have returned from last year's team, and Bernie Saltysiak and Neil Cole have returned from the '42 and '43 squads respectively. The other five members of the squad—Jimmy Baker, Jimmy Ward, Ed Vidali, Tom Comber and John O'Connor all gained experience on the high school courts.

Roche and Bardelman were both mainstays on last year's team and should be the same again this year. Both have shown up well in pre-season workouts.

Sid, a six foot two inch, 205 pounder, has an unerring eye at hitting that hoop from the outside, and never seems to miss from in close.

George, despite the fact that he is the smallest man on the squad, is the fastest and cleverest ball handler on the team. He stands only five feet seven inches and weighs a mere 140 pounds, but what he lacks in size, he makes up for in speed and alertness. His specialty is a fast break and lay-up shot down the center of the court.

Bill Cahill is another big boy. He stands six feet and weighs 225 pounds and has acquired a knack of using every ounce of his weight to its fullest advantage. He is a good ball handler and a great team player. He'll give any opposing team trouble under the baskets.

A fine set shot and the ability to shoot off a fast break are the qualities that best describe Johnny Mudd—last returning veteran of the '45 squad. He is six feet also and can really get up in the air after those rebounds.

Another great asset to this year's team is the return of Bernie Saltysiak and Neil Cole. Bernie, who played for the Hounds in 1942, before he left school to enter the service, stands six feet two inches and weighs 205 pounds and should prove a valuable man to have around against opposing teams.

The tallest man on the team is Neil Cole, six feet three inches, who returned to Loyola after a twenty-three month sojourn in the Army Air Corps. He played for the Green and Grey in 1943 and has gained additional experience playing ball in the service. He has a fine pivot shot from anywhere close to the basket.

The remaining five members of the squad are all Freshmen, and have had no college experience. They have, however, played lots of high school ball. Jimmy Baker and Jimmy Ward played for Mount Saint Joseph's; Edward Vidali for Calvert Hall College, and John O'Connor and Tom Comber for Loyola High School.

It's Time For CHRISTMAS SHOPPING!

You'll find just what you want for everyone on your list . . . but don't wait till

Christmas Eve!!

Now's The Time To Start Christmas Shopping at

HOCHSCHILD, KOHN & CO.

The store where you feel at home

WHATEVER IT IS,

YOU'LL FIND IT

AT

SEAR'S

North Ave. & Harford Rd.

UN. 3970

Vidali's Bakery

FOR QUALITY GOODS

4627 York Road
1221 W. North Ave.

Give A Gift
With a School or Lodge Seal

The John Trockenbrot Co.
Designers of

School, College, Club, Lodge
Rings and Pins

BANQUET FAVORS, TROPHIES

310 North Poca Street
VERNON 1052

Gifts with
Loyola College Seals

Have That Xmas Gift Put in a BOX!!

Manufacturers of Paper Boxes

George P. Killian Co.

1211 Penna. Ave., N. W.
Washington, D. C.

JIM CORKRAN'S

FINE WINES AND LIQUORS

5406 York Road

TU. 6660

Payne & Merrill

Outfitters for Men and Boys

315 NORTH CHARLES STREET
BALTIMORE . . . MARYLAND

South 2572

Eagle Oil Company

Distributors of

TEXACO PRODUCTS

H. S. HEUSLER 946 Warner St.

Sloppy Seniors Cop Intramural Play-off Berth

The Sloppy Seniors sewed up the bunting in League A of the intramural football set-up with a 31-0 triumph over the Knickerbocker Knockers last Wednesday, while Walsh's Wabbits, pacesetters in League B, need only a victory over the twice beaten Smootchers to assure themselves of the loop flag and a berth in the playoffs.

Amassing 92 points while holding their foes to 6 markers, the senior sextet swept to the crown with four straight conquests, Sid Roche's 40 yard field goal enabling them to nip the runner-up Second Raters 9-6 in the best contest of the campaign.

Story Book Finish

The Wabbits supplied the top story book finish during the season when Bill Cahill's touchdown pass to Terry Fay gave them a 12-6 verdict over the Pups with four seconds of play remaining.

Another high scoring aggregation, the Hustlers, is currently in second place in League B. Paced by "Okes" O'Connor and Buck Ward, they also ran up 92 tallies in four tilts, but an early season 9-7 loss to the loop-leaders fractured their title chances.

Bardelman Still Top Scorer

George Bardelman, the Sloppy Seniors' Mercury-gaited halfback, added five more paydirt sorties to his scoring log since last issue to retain the individual tallying leadership. Hector DiNardo, the Atomic Bombers' speedster, chalked up three six-pointers to tie Ward for third place in the race while O'Connor held on to the runner-up spot with 19 counters.

In other lunchtime frays, the Smootchers topped the Pups, 6-0; the Hot Dogs rolled over Knickerbocker Knockers, 20-0; the Sloppy Seniors tamed the Riot Squad, 20-0; the Atomic Bombers defeated the Smootchers, 12-0; and the Hustlers trounced both the Atomic Bombers, 33-6, and the Pups, 19-0.

Playoff Plans

Following the regular season, the first two teams of each circuit will compete in playoffs consisting in a two game series. Barring eleventh-hour upsets, the Sloppy Seniors will face the Second Raters, and Walsh's Wabbits will meet the Hustlers. Thus, each team will have faced the other three times. The winner of this series will garner the loop championship.

The two teams which emerge from this sparring will meet for the school crown, and they will tackle an aggregation composed of vets in an exhibition contest.

Mr. Doering To Coach Green And Grey Quint

Mr. Rudolph A. Doering, S. J.

Greyhounds Return To Tank And Track

With the return of track and swimming to Evergreen, Loyola will take another step in its return to a full pre-war athletic program.

Mr. Rudolph A. Doering, S. J., has been conducting swimming practice for the past two weeks to determine the material at hand and to get his charges into condition.

Plans have been made to sponsor meets both at home and away, but as yet none has been officially scheduled.

Organization of the thinclads will not take place until late Spring, but the Green and Gray hopes to place a few contenders in the Mason-Dixon Conference cross-country meet next week at Catholic University in Washington.

Basketball Managers

Last month, when twenty candidates for the Greyhound basketball quintet reported for the initial practice, they were accompanied by four students who had answered A. A. President George Bardelman's call for managers.

Those who applied for the positions of score and record keeper were Charles Schmidt, sports editor of THE GREYHOUND, intramural managers Joe Davis and Sam Craig, and Clark Corcoran.

In appreciation of their work, letters will be presented at the end of the season to the managers. A major letter will be given to the head manager and minor letters will be given to the other three. Davis, Craig and Corcoran will be admitted to the Block L Club. Schmidt, who played for the Green and Grey baseball nine, is already a member.

Phone South 0864

Louis J. Heying

BAKERY

William and West Sts.

Baltimore Fumigators

TERMITE CONTROL

3718 Yosemite Ave.
Liberty 7070

RUCK

FUNERAL HOME

5305 Harford Rd.

With the return of Lefty Reitz still in the future, Loyola is very fortunate to have within its ranks, as Assistant Director of Athletics, such an experienced and capable sportsman as Mr. Rudolph A. Doering, S. J. who is handling the coaching duties of both the basketball and swimming teams this Fall.

Before entering the society, Mr. Doering matriculated at Cornell University where he majored in Hotel Administration in the Business College. While at Cornell, he played on the varsity basketball and baseball teams for three years. In his senior year, he was captain of the baseball team and co-captain of the basketball team. After graduating in '37, he worked out with the Washington Senators and swam for the St. George Dragons Club of the St. George Hotel in Brooklyn.

He entered the Society of Jesus in September of 1939 and spent three years at the novitiate in Wernersville, Pennsylvania. In 1942, he went to Woodstock for three years of philosophical study and came to Loyola this September to begin his coaching career for the first time. Here at Loyola, he lectures in Accounting, Economics and German and has been appointed Moderator of the Glee Club and Orchestra. Both of these groups will be reorganized as soon as sufficient material is discovered.

In his spare hours he is custodian of the College Book Store.

LOYOLA

vs.

GEORGETOWN

- at -

Evergreen

Dec. 1

8:45 p.m.

Publicity Dept. Plans Brochure

A basketball brochure that is bigger and better than Loyola College has ever seen is now being prepared by the Publicity Department of the Athletic Association. Robert E. Hiltz, Publicity Manager, is in charge of editing the brochure.

Some of the highlights of the brochure will be: a section dedicated to all of Loyola athletes who have died in the war, pictures of all these athletes, pictures of each individual player, of the Coach and Director of Athletics, of the Rector and Dean of the College, of Loyola's trophies, the Gym and the team managers.

It will contain all the information you want to know about the team, about our opponents, the schedule and the athletic set-up at Loyola.

The brochure is priced at 25c and will be on sale at all home games.

U. S. Air Conditioning & Refrigerating Co.

24 Hour Service on All Makes
336 N. Gay St. CALvert 2313

Hounds Start Mat Practice

After a three year vacation from collegiate competition, Loyola will return to the wrestling wars this season. A schedule for the "grunt-and-growlers" is being sought by Athletic Director, the Rev. William V. Herlihy, S. J., as a group of sixteen hopefuls work out daily on the gym mat.

Only three of these grapplers have had any previous wrestling experience. Pete Starlings, a 165-pounder, was undefeated when he wrestled here three years ago before his entrance into the Navy. Phil Lohrey and Leonard Siems represent the only other seasoned matmen. Both performed in high school circles last year.

Until a suitable coach can be secured, Lohrey is supervising the after school conditioning sessions and reports he is pleased with the showing of Frosh Jack Enoch and Johnny Mercaldo, candidates for the 145 and 128 pound classes respectively.

Other aspirants include George Buchness, 175 lbs.; Frank Griffin and Bob Trainor, 165 lbs.; Franny Meagher, Dan Bakal and John Herbert, 155 lbs.; Vince McGuinness, 145 lbs.; Hector DiNardo, 136 lbs.; and newcomers William Simon and Joe Parlett.

Lettermen Hold Smoker, Nov. 30

The lettermen of the college will sponsor a smoker in the recreation room of the gymnasium on Friday evening, November 30. The affair will be stag and will get under way at 8:30 p. m. This will be the second social held by the Block L Club this year.

Motion pictures of the sports thrills of the last several years will highlight the evening's entertainment program which will include a guest speaker and refreshments. Admission is fifty cents.

Members of the Block L Club, including Alumni members, members of the varsity basketball squad, varsity basketball and intramural managers, and members of the first place teams in each of the leagues in the intramural football tournament are invited to attend, as well as fathers of Block L members.

NOW!

The Catholic Calender For 1946

$1.00 at Bookstore

Madison Nite Club

Two Floor Shows Nitely

RATHSKELLER

Dancing Nitely

Hawaii Music

Madison & Chester Sts.

Wolfe 867

OREY'S Bar-B-Q INC.

25th Street at Kirk Ave.
24 Hour Service

Sandwiches Soft Drinks

Hounds To Open Against LaSalle In Philly, Nov. 28

Loyola College will lift the cover of its 1945-46 basketball season on Wednesday night, November 28, when it travels to Philadelphia to engage the Explorers of LaSalle.

The Hounds will be out to avenge their two ignominious defeats of last year when the Blue and Gold rolled over the Green and Grey by scores of 80-40 and 58-44.

Experience Prevalent

This year's team will consist of eleven men, six of whom have had previous college experience.

Sid Roche, George Bardelman, Bill Cahill and John Mudd have returned from last year's team, Neil Cole from the squad of 1943, and Bernie Saltysiak from the '42 quint. The other five members of the squad are Freshmen who have had no college experience. John O'Connor, Jimmy Ward and Ed Vidali are of the May Freshman Class, and Jimmy Baker and Tom Comber are of the September Class.

The first team will probably consist of Bardelman and either Ward or O'Connor at the guards, Cole at center, and Roche and Saltysiak at the forwards. The other five hoopsters can fill in at any of these positions.

First Home Game, Dec. 1

Following their opening game with the Explorers, the Hounds will make their first home appearance in the college gym on Saturday, December 1, against the Hoyas of Georgetown University at 8:45 p. m.

This game will mark the return of the Hilltoppers to intercollegiate basketball after a two year vacation. The last Hoya team captured the National Collegiate A. A. Eastern championship in the Madison Square Garden in 1943.

GET YOUR

BASKETBALL BROCHURE

Everything you want to know about the team

Price 25c

Waldorf Dress Suit Co.

MEN'S FORMAL WEAR

108 W. Baltimore St.

CA. 5344

If You Say It With Flowers

Make Sure They're Ours

Kenyon's Flower Shop

2934 Keswick Rd.

Park Radio Co.

THOMAS LEE DORSEY

321 N. Charles St.

RADIOS

RECORDS—PHONOGRAPHS

DRINK

Old Fashion

ROOT BEER

PATRONIZE GREYHOUND ADVERTISERS

ALUMNI DOINGS

By Edward A. Doehler, '30

Class Reunions

With the daily return of Alumni service men from the distant quarters of the globe, it once again becomes possible to have the kind of class reunion that we have been dreaming of for years. During the coming winter season it is the hope of the Officers of the Association that as many classes as possible will revive the custom of holding these reunions.

The facilities of the College on the Campus at Evergreen are available for your use. The recreation room, basketball floor, football field and swimming pool are yours for the asking. The Officers of the Association are ready to assist you in correcting your class lists and in contacting your members. The columns of THE GREYHOUND are open for the publication of your announcements and reports on the success of your meetings. All that is needed is "you." Get moving, class captains—bring the boys out to Evergreen, and show us what real reunions you can hold!

News From The Service Alumni

Ensign Barkley Fritz, USNR., '43, writes in from aboard the U. S. S. Barrow (A. P. A.-61). Barkley was kept busy in the last months of the war carrying outgoing troops to the islands of the Pacific. At present his task is more pleasant, running back and forth from those same islands to the States, bringing those same troops home, to stay! Barkley is a member of the ASN and has expressed his interest in the proposal of establishing an Alumni Chapter of the Honor Society in Baltimore.

Charles T. Waters, '40, was a visitor at Evergreen in recent weeks. Charlie served as a sergeant in the USAAF in the European campaigns and is now back in civilian life. After reestablishing contacts and visiting friends and classmates, Charlie intends to settle down to the study of commercial art, a field that he left to enter the armed forces.

Fred Dewberry Writes

Lt. (j. g.) Fred Dewberry, Jr., USNR., '43, attached to the Destroyer U. S. S. Alfred A. Cunningham (DD 752), wrote in recently from Jinsen, Korea. Fred had his hard days when the Cunningham was working on the famous destroyer picket line where so many destroyers were damaged and sunk by Kamikaze planes. He also had the thrill of being on patrol off Ie Shima on the day the Jap peace envoys flew in on their way to the rendezvous with General MacArthur in the Philippines and saw the two white Jap bombers painted with green crosses—a sight quite different from the Kamikazes.

At the time of his letter Fred was having a much easier time. His was one of the first two American warships to enter the port of Dairen in Manchuria to arrange for the release of 1200 prisoners of war from the Jap camp at Mukden. Since then he has had the opportunity of observing at first hand conditions prevailing in Soviet-occupied parts of reconquered Manchuria.

Executive Committee Reports

(The Alumni Association of Loyola College opened a new year of activity on October 26 with the election of officers. At its first executive meeting, the Alumni Association began to map its plans for the coming year. The following account contains a summary of this meeting. THE GREYHOUND feels it is a favorable omen of more activity and finer quality in the Association)

The executive committee of the Loyola College Alumni Association held its initial meeting of the year 1945-46 on Wednesday, November 7 at 8:30 p.m. at the faculty residence.

Those present were: Faculty Representative, the Rev. Thomas J. Higgins, S. J.; President, Anselm Sodaro, '31; First Vice-President, Jerome J. Egan, '32; Second Vice-President, Dr. Frank J. Otčenasek, '33; and Directors: Carl F. Gottschalk, '41, Frank A. Muth, '36, J. Lacy Bradley, '21, Lingard I. Whiteford, '27, Joseph B. Smith, '43, Frank M. Pilachowski, '40, and John W. Farrell, '17. Recording Secretary, Robert B. Bouchelle, '30, and Financial Secretary, Edward A. Doehler, '30, also attended. Present for special reports were John J. Kernan, '45, and Laurence P. Molloy, '45.

Executive Meetings Monthly

It was agreed at the meeting that the Executive Committee should meet on the first Friday of each month, and that there should be more than one annual general meeting of the Association.

Besides the annual meeting (Election Meeting on October 26), there are to be at least three general meetings during the year. The additional meetings need not necessarily be business meetings but may include social features.

Increase Scholarship Fund

The committee heard a report from Laurence P. Molloy, '45, concerning the possibility of increasing the scholarship fund of the college through the use of an insurance policy plan.

The president appointed Mr. Molloy chairman of a committee, with J. Lacy Bradley as adviser, to investigate further and report at the next executive meeting.

The president, Mr. Sodaro, appointed the following officers: Treasurer, Michael F. Delea, '23; Recording Secretary, Robert B.

Bouchelle, '30; and Financial Secretary, Edward A. Doehler, '30.

Also appointed by the president were the following committee chairmen: (Their functions as they appear in the Constitution of the Association are outlined along with plans of the committee for the year)

Membership Committee

Frank A. Muth, '36, was appointed chairman of the Membership Committee. ("The Chairman of the Membership Committee shall choose for his Committee six associate members, two from the Executive Committee and four other active members in good standing. This Committee shall determine the eligibility of all applicants for membership in the Association in accordance with provisions laid down, and notify the applicants of their admission." Article 5, Sec. 2)

Plans of this committee include contacting actual members in order to build up a larger active membership. They will also be in charge of arranging the reception of graduates into the Association (at the Communion Breakfast on Graduation day), and propose to revive the former practice of inducting members with appropriate ceremonies at a smoker that will be part of June week.

Entertainment Committee

Jerome J. Egan, '32, was named the Chairman of the Entertainment Committee. ("The Chairman of the Entertainment Committee shall choose for his Committee two associate members, one from the Executive Committee and one active member from the Association at large. This committee shall prepare and arrange all entertainments provided by the Association." Art. V, Sec. 3)

The work of this committee will be increased this year because of the increased number of activities planned by the Board.

Students' Aid Committee

Selected as Chairman of the Students' Aid Committee was Dr. Frank J. Otčenasek, '33. ("The Chairman of the Students' Aid Committee shall select for his committee three or more members, one from the Executive Committee and two or more active members from the Association at large. This committee shall devise ways and means to lend a helpful hand to deserving students of Loyola College after the termination of their college course." Art. V, Sec. 5)

In the light of existing conditions, this committee will have much work before it in connection with the return of students whose work has been interrupted by the call to military service.

Committee On College Interests

Carl F. Gottschalk, '41, was chosen Chairman of the College Interests Committee. ("The Chairman of the Committee on College Interests shall select for his committee five members, two members of the Executive committee and three active members from the Association at large. This committee shall meet at the call of the Chairman and consult about the ways and means best suited to promote the interests of the College.")

This committee will have a broad field for the suggestion of ways and means, and ample opportunity to exert efforts in support of the many activities being carried on by the College at present and for which Alumni support is so important.

Banquet Committee

Lingard I. Whiteford, '27, is Chairman of the Banquet Committee. His committee will work out the details for the Alumni banquet, the date for which has been set by the Executive Committee for the evening of February 22, 1946.

The next meeting of the Executive Committee will be held on December 7, 1945.

Meyer & Thalheimer

STATIONERS
PRINTERS

10 N. Howard Street

EAT AT

Horn & Horn

304 E. Balto. St.

The Big Home Furnishing Store
Where You Feel At Home

Four Besche Bros.

1041-43-45-47 Light St.

The G. Fred Kranz Music Co.
Music & Musical Merchandise
Radio & Radio Equipment
327 N. Charles St.
Ph. LE. 3732 CA. 4042

MUNDER'S
GOOD FOOD & FINE DRINKS
4536 Harford Rd.

Albert Gunther, Inc.
HARDWARE SUPPLIES
Contract Builders
36 W. Biddle St. VE. 7437

Linthicum's Sunoco Station
Expert Washing—Polishing
Greasing
4533 Falls Rd. TU. 9835

BACHRACH RASIN COMPANY

ATHLETIC OUTFITTERS

AGENTS

P. GOLDSMITH SONS CO.

A. G. SPALDING BRO.

14 North Howard Street

Phone: LEExington 3066

Baltimore, Md.

Big Moment

Drink
Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF BALTIMORE

© 1945 The C-C Co.